I was a rock on an empty beach
Then you came and built a shelter around me
I was a wave on the lonely sea
Then you faced the storm and made me calm again
What can I bring to you but love?

One day I'll make you mine
One day we'll go all side by side
Many days will pass by
The seasons may change
Still. one day you will be mine

I was a desert in the far away land
Then you found me and made me a field in the harvest time
I was sleeping more than hundred years
Then you woke me up and showed me the one
What can I bring to you but love?

One day I'll make you mine
One day we'll go all side by side
Many days will pass by
The seasons may change
Still. one day you will be mine

Won't you come again. I know I'm not alone
I would like to dedicate my life to you

One day I'll make you mine
One day we'll go all side by side
Many days will pass by
The seasons may change
Still. one day you will be mine

One day I'll make you mine
One day we'll go all side by side
Many days will pass by
The seasons may change
Still. one day you will be mine
