Chorus:

Casted out...
I'm watching your eyes
Casting out...
My visions of nine
Blacking out...
Casted out, I'm watching your eyes bleed dry

Touched with frustrated lips
Love is like starting over
With every step engraving
The problems of memories

Chorus

Drunk on failures regrets
Letters of silence confess
Burdens within
Speaking as loneliness listens
While hopelessly feeling

Chorus

There's a definite pattern
To our behavior
Somehow the end draws us closer

Casting out...
My visions of nine
Casting out...
Let ten die, with time

Blacking out
Cast it out
