Throw away for you every second of this life,
Leave away all the memories I have
I don't need those if you're not in them
Only what's with you its right

If I could erase all I used to write,
Start all over just to be by your side

I just like the way we are together (oh oh)
You are the music of my mind

And all I want from you is to only understand
I'm invisible every time you're gone
How many roses to take you back?
The bruises down my back
Its all for you
For your love

You know I'd paint the world out of your colors,
Blind myself to the others
And all of your colors turned to be gray
I'll walk backwards everyday

Kissing and cuddling was such a waste
All that time in my heart,
Why couldn't you stay?
I wonder why you aren't here today

I just like the way we are together (oh oh)
You are the music of my mind

And all I want from you is to only understand
I'm invisible every time you're gone
How many roses to take you back?
The bruises down my back
Its all for you

And all I want from you is to only understand (only understand)
I'm invisible every time you're gone (you're gone)
How many roses to take you back?

The bruises down my back
Its all for you
