I just saw your face with the brightest smile
That makes me want you, be with you for a while
Only took a minute and that made me realize
You are really like, you read it in my eyes

Now you're here again on this Saturday
Make me feel good, I hope you ever stay
Only if I had a choice to make you ever mine
Only if I had a choice then you would always be mine

Only if I had a choice then you would always be mine
Then you would always be mine

I just saw your face with the brightest smile
That makes me want you, be with you for a while
Only took a minute and that made me realize
You are really like, you read it in my eyes

Now you're here again on this Saturday
Make me feel good, I hope you ever stay
Only if I had a choice to make you ever mine
Only if I had a choice then you would always be mine

[Incomprehensible]

I just saw your face with the brightest smile
That makes me want you, be with you for a while
Only took a minute and that made me realize
You are really like, you read it in my eyes

Now you're here again on this Saturday
Make me feel good, I hope you ever stay
Only if I had a choice to make you ever mine
Only if I had a choice then you would always be mine
Then you would always be mine
