Cross us and youre a corpse, theyll put their money on you, with their guns up to your back, now youre betting with your life and I hope you never win, once your time is up theyll throw you to the dogs, the rain cant stop them now but I sing till it rains frogs, you cant run cause ill pillage and burn this town (to the ground) we go from blood for blood to flesh on flesh, I kept the valedictorian up all night, and she looked so good and she should, the prom queen's got the best looking drugs money can buy, get into my bed cause im out of my mind, this is my serenade, youve got the hand grenade, any word I sing could pull the pin, I dont care if I find you dead or alive
