Fuck, check her out
The chick by the door
Yeah, she's a surly little girl
I think I've seen her in here before

With that waist
And them high-top Chucks
I wanna buy her a drink -- or twelve
And hope she pulls me in the bathroom to fuck

Fuck, check her out
If I knew her name I erased it
That girl looks great to me
Although I gotta admit that I'm wasted

And all my friends tell me to settle down
But there's a lotta broads in this town
In this town
And fuck, I gotta say I love

Tattooed women, tattooed women
Tattooed women make a lotta noise
I love tattooed women, tattooed women
I like tattooed women and I like Catholic boys

Fuck, check him out
Skinny punk by the bar
I've talked to him before
But I never seem to get very far

He's got that high school style
And he likes the Stones
That kid drives me crazy
But I never seem to get him alone

Fuck, check him out
What's that all about?
I'd like to pin him to a wall
But the motherfucker doesn't put out

And all my friends say he's not the one

And I'd like to stop but it's too fucking fun
Well, it's fun
And fuck, I gotta say I love

Tattooed women, tattooed women
Tattooed women make a lotta noise
I love tattooed women, tattooed women
I like tattooed women and I like Catholic boys

KEY CHANGE!

Tattooed women, tattooed women
I like tattooed women make a lotta noise
I love tattooed women, tattooed women
I like tattooed women and I like Catholic boys

I like those tattooed women and those fucked-up
Catholic boys!
