and the tide is keeping me from ever drowning my dreams
but it's alright, well it's alright because i'm constantly dreaming of you and i wish that my youth
was a valid excuse for everything i've done girl, please don't turn and run tonight and i hope you know (i hope you know) that i'm sorry (that i'm sorry)

and i want you to know that love will be alright again
someday

honestly
this is my last pathetic attempt i should be exempt from writing these silly songs for you

someday

we all die alone
but my heart could be your home
