I'm not a kid anymore
Looking at whats in store Started a whole new life

No stress somebody else may happen again with all the pressure of nobody for the family

Well now i know that god is always there with me filling my life with everything i need so we'll wake up tomorrow and i'll forget some idol to be a real man

i remember when i used to go out and play (now its like nobody in the world thinks my way)
and now we know that things will never be the same no they will never be the same and i dont want to grow up deal with all that stuff always breakin me down take me back when i was there and everyone was my friend i didnt even know what a job was no stress to worry about no problems to figure out it just seems to be that life is so easier then so i am a father have to raise a daughter who i love so much

(now i cant help it nobody in the world thinks my way)
and now we know that things will never be the same

no they will never be the same (repeat)
