Time spent waiting for you, eyes closed watching every time I cry and wishing we could run through 3 years over again. So write it down that Iâm missing smiles and laughin tears means to you best friends miles away. No words to say tonight Iâm cold feeling sick empty hearts empty bottles playing games. So thatâs the last time whatâs the point play that sweet tune its 3 down and its 3 to go. If there is just one thing I know is that you are so history and Iâm still painting your picture on the wall above my head so follow me back home, and I blow those candles out move the curtains to the side I think Iâm gonna jump cuz Iâm feeling you. Hands down youâre the coolest kid ever youâre my American idol.
