

Varsity, The "Hello Goodbye"

Visit "Hello Goodbye" on MotoLyrics.com

Tonight it's the night the fail safe broke again and I fell one too many times. But good thing there's you so catch me I look around and no one sees me, in the corner wishing I wasn't that person that seems to let you down but somehow you put up with it and tell me. So long to yesterday. It's alright its ok whisper this softly in my ear. Tick tock the clock on the wall goes, never one eye closed you've been my hearts shadow now I only have you to thank for that. My pillow feels like clouds and I can see the stars from here, your fairy tale your smiles don't you see what I'm saying here. This time it made more sense to me, but the more I think the more I miss please be there when I step out of this car I'm coming home to you.
