How'd you preach The Word if you don't know how to read
Will they hold your soul once you've signed the deed
Would the sun still rise if there was no one around
Would the fox be as quick if he hadn't his hound

Let him go
Let him go
Let him go for me

The whole world spins with her feet off the ground
She'll make the stars applaud when she sits back down
There's a bulls-blood fountain in the pit of a moan
I will summon an eclipse on my way to the Lord

Let him go
Let him go
Let him go for me

Jesus for the jugular
One at a time
Ain't nobody ever gonna ever have a mind to die
