Deep inside the eyes, the world is done.
It wonders where you are, and the memory is one But I can't get to close, inside the glowing red It eats away the flesh and bone and won't stop until the hungers fed. Yeah

Yeah it's deep inside the eyes, the world is done, it wonders where you are,
and the memory is one, but I can't get to close, inside the glowing red,
it eats away the flesh and bone and won't stop until the hungers fed.

Die, worthless creatures, why do you have to try and wage your war just burn in hell

Cry for your lost sanity, that has never went over well, so let your emblem fly, as you die, laid to waste.
So let your emblem fly as you die, laid to waste.
Go on and wage your war, you want to wage your war; you want to wage your war so bring it.
Be gone, be gone, be gone, be gone.
You want to wage your war, you want to wage your war, you want to wage your war, so bring it. Yeah!

Time is broken, the clock has stopped, you better get ready for the coming blast of the bomb drop,
light your candles, and say your prayers today, you sit right back taking it all in, watch your angel fly away, watch it fly away.

Time is broken, the clock has stopped, you better get ready for the coming blast cause the bombs have just been dropped, light your candles, say your prayers today, you sit right back taking it all in, watching your angel fly away, watch it fly away-.

Go on and wage your war,
Go on and wage your war, you wage your WAR!
