You make me breakfast in bed
When I'm mixed up in my head.
You wake me with a kiss
I could get used to this.
You think I look the best
When my hair is a mess,
I can't believe you exist,
I could get used to this.

Because I know
You're too good to be true.
I must have done something good
To meet you.

'Cause you wrote my name across your hand,
When I freak you understand.
There is not a thing you miss
And I could get used to this.
I'm feeling it coming over me
With you it all comes naturally.
Lost the reflex to resist.
And I could get used to this.

You love the songs I write,
You like the movies I like.
There must be some kind of twist
But I could get used to this.

Because you listen to me
When I'm depressed.
It doesn't seem to make you like me less.

'Cause you wrote my name across your hand
When I freak you understand.
There is not a thing you miss
And I could get used to this.
I'm feeling it coming over me
With you it all comes naturally.
Lost the reflex to resist
And I could get used to this.

If there's a dark side to you
I haven't seen it.
Every good thing you do
Feels like you mean it.

'Cause you wrote my name across your hand
When I freak you understand.
There is not a thing you miss
And I could get used to this.
I'm feeling it coming over me
With you it all comes naturally.
Lost the reflex to resist
And I could get used to this.
(chorus x2)

You make me breakfast in bed
When I'm mixed up in my head,
You wake me with a kiss
I could get used to this.
