I'm at the crazy point where I don't know if i am coming or I am going.
It would be really nice if you would let me into the knowing.

I know you cannot read my mind, do you like it when I
take your time?
Is it time to tell the boys I'm not thier anymore because I'm feeling guilty when they call.

I think you've got me in your clutches always longing for your touches dreaming of your juicy lips
with your skin upon my fingertips

I know it sounds silly but I got this feeling you're thinking the same thing that I am thinking not to set the expectation high but I like the perfect guy her's what I need to know AM I WHAT YOU ALWAYS DREAMED OF?
I know you thought it didn't exist well I didn't either but the winds of the east have blown away the mist and now I've go this fever

take your time?
Is it time to tell the boys I'm not theirs anymore because I'm feeling guilty when they call.

I think you've got me in your clutches
always longing for your touches
dreaming of your juicy lips
with your skin upon my fingertips
