

Verses, The "Settle Down"

Settle Down, settle down now on that road
'Cause you still got so far to go
Don't let your head get ahead of you
And sit back down,
Take the time to clear the air
Forget all the words they said,
Cause they don't mean a thing
Shouldn't mean a thing to you

And if it falls apart
Comes crashing down
We'll put those feet back on the ground
And when the night comes down
That's when I
I think of you

Oh laugh it off
'Cause they do't know where you come from No they don't know you at all and they don't get your soul, not like I do
I see the fire
I see it burning in your eyes
You know you scare me with your desire
To see your name up in lights
And it's gonna come true

And if it falls apart
Comes crashing down
We'll put those feet back on the ground
When the night comes down
That's when I
I think of you

And all the critics and the straights
I this damn town
Could only hope to cut you down
When the night comes around
Thats when I, I think of you

You gotta hold on to over come

And if it falls apart
Comes crashing down
We'll get your feet back on the ground
And when the night comes down
Thats when I
I think of you

And all the critics and the Straights in this damn town
They could never hope to cut you down
And when the night comes around
Thats when I
I think of you
I think of you
I think of you
