Remember how it felt?
To walk the streets at night?
Waiting for the sun to rise...
Waiting for life to begin.
What happened to days full of hope?
What happened to days of innocence?
Tell me where did it go?
My brilliant future.
Where did my skyworld go?
I swore I'd never change.
That I'd always be the same.
Take this guilt away from me.
Kill this memory.
What happened to days full of hope?
What happened to days of innocence?
It's never coming back.
Take a look around.
What do you see?
Is this your idea of what we'd be?
