Why, why would you
Ever care what it's like to be me, yeah
Oh why, why would anybody care to listen to me

'Cause I think I'm crazy, yeah
But I can't imagine being anybody else
And I know I'm crazy, yeah
But don't you think it's okay being okay with yourself

Now all this this time I never thought it'd be
A couple minutes, there goes three
I'm calling in to see what they can make of me

So why, why would you
Ever care what it's like to be me, yeah
Oh why, why would anybody care to listen to me
Why would you, why would you

Now here we go to California
Through Nevada as we'll be in Georgia
We slept too upon the ground
God damn, my only dream I found

So why, why would you
Ever care what it's like to be me, yeah
Oh why, why would anybody care to listen to me
Why would you

Now here we go to California
Someday I know we'll get to Georgia
Why would you
Why would you
