I feel the need to know
why i go through the things that i go through and why is it everywhere i go people look at me as though be no good one ask why, i don't know
I feel sometimes losing my head doing all that I can try na hold it down and how not become physically drain shake hello only cause my calamity
one ask why, i don't know

tell me why, must i go through this plythe
and the pain in my life fighting everyday is it fair, when i try to survive
and get thrust back inside
hard to find my way

give me one reason
Can't fathom for what
They do it for naught
To spite but themselves
Give me one reason
Trouble trying my all
Trying my calm
Cause you're fighting yourself
One reason
Why do hurting subside
Rid fury let die
Sickening me the more
One reason
For the constant conflict
Robbing still in my life
Won't be martyred so why a reason

There are times I'm okay I play fine Turn the button deaf ear grin watch lips move
Other times drowning eaten alive Dangerous kick stabbing lying evilors tend to do Hands decide, Probably knows

I search in the deepest in me

Mis conceptions could lead to the misconstrue
Is there non other than but myself Voicing loud this for what am I going through Question why oh answer why

One reason
One reason

Peace be still save peace
I pray them
Please save them
I'm praying

I feel the need to know
Why oh why
Need to know
