I look at you, you look at me
It seems we both love what we see
I need you more and more each day
But all I do, is dream and pray
Declaration of love
Read my lips all they can tell
Is that we fit together well
I never felt like this before
If this is love, please give me more
Declaration of love
Declaration of love

DÃ©claracion de amor, declaracion de amor
I need you more and more each day
But all do, is dream and pray
DÃ©claracion de amor
If this is love, please, please give me more please give me more
