I don't raise my hand up
Just to make the point that I don't care
But when I say that I love you
Don't tell me that I don't understand

When I am all alone
I pretend that we are talking live
We've never met or even talked before
And I'm thinking, how I wish that wasn't so

And I feel warm when I'm falling for you
I feel warm when I'm falling for you
I feel warm when I'm falling for you

And all the ways I've tried to get out for a change
It always ends with me walking home
And I wish some day
Ooh, when I look back
I can see you and finally understand

And I feel warm when I'm falling for you
I feel warm when I'm falling for you
I feel warm when I'm falling for you

Fallingâ€¦

And if you want me
I would let the whole world down
If you said maybe
I would wait for all my life
And now I'm falling
Now I'm falling down for you

And I feel warm when I'm falling for you
