So let your mind dry, nothing in this world is sacred
A whole new view is what you'll need to take it
Well you should shut your eyes and think about what really matters
Close your mind and curl up against the trigger

There's no ammunition (ammunition)
Ammunition (ammunition)

They don't think anything around here
They don't think anything around here
Ammunition

Hold your head high, in time you'll meet you maker
But if you fire straight you're on your best behaviour
Well you should shut your eyes and think about what really matters
Close your mind and curl up against the trigger

And there's no ammunition (ammunition)
Ammunition (ammunition)

They don't think anything around here
They don't think anything around here
Ammunition
As if it's all we'll ever need
As if it's all we'll ever need

Close your eyes
Nothing can touch you
Close your eyes
Open your mind
Suppress what you deserve
Never admit to being worse
Just know that I have always known

Ammunition (ammunition)
Ammunition (ammunition)

Don't think around here
Don't think around here

Don't think around here
Don't think around here
Ammunition
Ammunition
