Man wake up,
You're not the only one crawling around on your knees
We're all struggling and feeling around,
But the darkness it keeps us free.

So gather yourselves, gather yourselves.
Then we'll gather ourselves, gather ourselves.
Somebody help me out, let me know.
You might be lost with someone else.
So gather yourself, gather yourself.

Man cheer up,
It's not the only time you'll have to strike this the wrong way.
We're all struggling and feeling around,
But the darkness keeps us free.

So gather yourselves, gather yourselves
Then we'll gather ourselves, gather ourselves
Somebody help me out, let me know
You might be lost with someone else
You've given your all, given your all
You might be lost with someone else
Lost with someone

But we're always so far along, we're always so far.
You're always so far along, you're always so far.

Send the good child, to speak of right and wrong.
A moral lesson in the ways of the world
Or something to keep us warm.

Gather yourselves
Somebody help me out, let me know
You might be lost with someone else
You've given your all, given your all
You might be lost with someone else
So gather yourself, gather yourself.
Gather yourself.
