I set the time on the bedside radio
You're not giving me the answer
Capture the moment with a quiet glance back at you
Shall I speak a little slower?

Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you let it go?
Let it go

I pull you close for the last time so take it slow
You move a little faster
I set my mind on a clean break easy blow
Yeah, you can worry when it's over

Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you let it go?
Let it go
[x2]

If this is the answer, I don't need to know
Keep it close now, keep it close, don't let it show
If this is the answer, go settle your scores
Or buy me a time machine then you could have it all
Then you could have it all
Then you could have it all

Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you fight it out?
Then we should just let it go... no
Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you fight it out?
Then we should just let it go
Let it go, no no.

Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you fight it out?
Why don't you fight it out?

If this is the answer, I don't need to know
Keep it close now, keep it close, don't let it show
If this is the answer, go settle your scores
Or buy me a time machine then you could have it all
