Visit "Birthday Party" on MotoLyrics.com

Too late it's my birthday
You're not here, you're not there
Called you to tell you how much I care

Don't you hear me? I need you near me
I've set a place for two, your seat and my heart
Empty from the start and all alone

Did you just forget me
And not recall I breathe at all?
I wrap my arms around me
Hold back the tears, what's one more year?

Don't you hear me? I need you near me
I've set a place for two, your seat and my heart
Empty from the start and all alone

Don't you hear me? I need you near me
I've set a place for two, your seat and my heart
Empty from the start and all alone
