Cleveland Buddy, Yeah the city by the lake
If you wanna holla at me in the Land is where I stay, Yeah I said It before, I aint made a mistake, I'm from Cleveland Mother Fucker
That aint never gonna change.

Cleveland Buddy, Yeah the city by the lake
If you wanna holla at me in the Land is where I stay, Yeah I said It before, I aint made a mistake, I'm from Cleveland Mother Fucker
That aint never gonna change.

(Verse 1)

216, 216. And yeah we stay on our hustle, we those cats that stay in cuffs cause these folks can't beat our muscle. In the streets, we the long arm of the law. From the ceiling to the floor, and back from wall to wall. We stack money, stay strapped with AKs not because we wanna.
But we gotta live today We gotta see tomorrow, we gotta stay paid, like how I gotta cut tracks and how I gotta get plays. And what better place then the city that I claim? Don't look for the spelling, but the land is in my name, Im'a take that crown, from my boy LeBron James, I'm the king right now, and I ain't fuckin with these lames. Like a flame, we gon keep on burning. Im a student to the streets and Im'a keep on leaning. We gon keep on earning, money makings in our blood, 216 is coming up, Cleveland, put ya guns up!

(Verse 2)

Yeah I rep C-Town, but I bleed H.V.D. If you don't wanna see my bloodline
then don't fuck with me, cause my boys is like sharks, in the middle, of the sea, if they hungry they gon eat, it doesn't matter who you be, It doesn't matter who ya is, if this isn't where ya live, then it dont matter what I give, cause you aint never gonna get it, so quit it, forget it, ignore it, it's done.

This the only place I know that with it's falls stays number one.

In my heart, this city weighs a fucking ton. Though my pockets weigh the same, I could live without the one. Homeless by the Jake, or rich and feeling fake, home just would'nt be the same if it was any other place. Im a C-Town rider, a municipal survivor, guns on both sider. Fuck it.

Im a fighter. you wanna bring the beef, then homie thats ya choice.

When we say raise up, we aint talkin bout ya voice. 216

(Chorus)

Cleveland Buddy, Yeah the city by the lake
If you wanna holla at me in the Land is where I stay, Yeah I said It before, I aint made a mistake, I'm from Cleveland Mother Fucker
That aint never gonna change.

(Verse 3)

It's a mad cruel world and I can't do it on my own, so in order to get in the zone. I just think about my home. We aint never gonna roam, we aint never gonna stray. 216 on top, best believe we here to stay. From Broadway, back up to H.V.D, to my peoples out on Fleet, and down every fucking street.
7-1 got my back, cause they know that's where I'm at. It doesn't matter where you at, 216 let's get this cash. I got this itch it's like a rash, It doesn't matter how hard I scratch I can't get Cleveland off my back, Bone put this city on the map.
Im puttin us right back on track, cause there aint shit this city lacks, except a place to put these stacks, and you know ya'll feeling that. 216 stays on that grind gettin money overtime, and it's now out time to shine, We sick of standin out in line.
So open up mother fuckers, cause we'd kick down the door. Cleveland's steady doubted on, and I can't take it anymore. 216

(Chorus)

Cleveland Buddy, Yeah the city by the lake
If you wanna holla at me in the Land is where I stay, Yeah I said It before, I aint made a mistake, I'm from Cleveland Mother Fucker
That aint never gonna change.

Cleveland Buddy, Yeah the city by the lake
