So you think you know a lot about me
Shall I help you?
Don't you notice you've been lost on this scene
What blinded you?

I can't remember times when we were close friends
But can you?
Almost forgot I dreamed about being just like you
Now i'll go my way !

You had a chance and you just threw it away
An iron curtain was nailed over your face
I've tried to get to you but you didn't care
I'm sorry daddy I'll never trust you again

Keep trying to reach inside my haunted thoughts
You took away my demons?
You're free to do whatever you think is right for me
But I won't listen !

I can't remember times when we were close friends
But can you?
Almost forgot I dreamed about being just like you
Now i'll go my way !

You had a chance and you just threw it away
An iron curtain was nailed over your face
I've tried to get to you but you didn't care
I'm sorry daddy i'll never trust you again

You had a chance and you just threw it away
An iron curtain was nailed over your face
I've tried to get to you but you didn't care
I'm sorry daddy i'll never trust you again
