Sitting here, all alone
Staring at your pictures
Looking for a place to hide
I need you by my side

Now I really miss you
I Don't know what I'm into

Feeling cold, my tongue's got dry
I'm wondering what's going on
To find a cure, and stop the aches
I'm on my way to the grave

Now I can't reach you
I Don't know what I'm into

It's been a week since we left
The pain seems to blackout my days
Inside I feel I'm not alive
I think that I will not survive

All hope is gone, out of control
I'm running to jump off the ledge
My eyes shine down into the ground
I'm only a pain to forget

Now i can't reach you
I Don't know what I'm into

It's been a week since we left
The pain seems to blackout my days
Inside I don't feel i'm alive
I think that I will not survive
