I'm standing in your driveway,
But you're not home yet.
I've been waiting here since last night,
But you're not home.

You standing in the driveway,
But you don't know that.
I bet you've been with some other guy,
Looking who carried sushi.

But you're not home.

I'm breaking inside,
Your window wasn't open like you promised.
I've turned into that guy.
They told me this would happen,
When I broke up with you.

But you're not home.

I'm breaking inside,
Your window wasn't open like you promised.
I've turned into that guy.
They told me this would happen,
Now it's broken me too.
I'm waiting inside,
Your window wasn't open.
I broke it.
