I stand there watchin' her,
hand holds a cigarette, she tells me her name once again I will forget cause

Somewhere in my heart is a love that always will be Somewhere in my dreams is a love that won't stop me

She drinks her coffee twice Said something I cannot give Dark hair and brown eyes Speak that I have found with my day

Somewhere in my heart there's a love that always will be
Somewhere in my dreams is a love that won't stop me

Wish I could want someone long enough to feel this way
Can't make up your mind
Bitter feels worse this time cause

Somewhere in my heart is a love that always will be
Somewhere in my dreams is a love that won't stop me

Somewhere in my heart is a love that always will be Somewhere in my dreams is a love that won't stop me
