We where crazy back in the good old days
Getting high just a two man crew
Flying so high as a helicopter
Dancing in the sky again

Back to the class room playing with are toys
Know future for the text book kid
Well I will tell you what
If you can see me now

Here we go now
Changing the record to a different beat
Here we go now
Don't do what they tell us to do
Here we go now
Looking into the eye of the things we want

Living and dreaming in the fields of youth
Never got us down
Playing with are toy guns
Never seemed to here the blue nights sky
That's all down to missed youth on your brain
So here we go now
Changing the record to a different beat
Here we go now
Don't do what they tell us to do
Here we go now
Looking into the eye of the things we want

Poor old Tommie tiger
Found a better way
He got sent down for a thousand years
He didn't even meet the queen
Here we go now
So they said.
