Blinded by that look in your eyes
An honesty with a pleasant surprise
You're my everything,
You make me feel alright

And you and you and you alone
Can make quiver down to the bone
You're my everything,
You make me feel alright

Now I'm slowly falling into you

And she said:
Why
You spin me around like a good old stonecake
And she said:
Why
I hit the ground yet I feel alive
Why
You spin me around like a good old stonecake

Tell this whisper into my ear
And all my problems soon disappear
You're my everything,
You make me feel alright

I can't get you out of my mind
Cause baby you are one of a kind
You're my everything,
You make me feel alright

Now I'm slowly falling into you

And she said:
Why
You spin me around like a good old stonecake
And she said:
Why
I hit the ground yet I feel alive
Why
You spin me around like a good old stonecake

Come on!!
Nanananananana
You're my everything, you make me feel alright
Nanananananana
You're my everything, you make me feel alright

Now I'm slowly falling
Yes I'm slowly falling
Now I'm slowly falling into you

And she said:
You spin me around like a good old stonecake
And she said:
(Stonecake)
I hit the ground yet I feel alive
Why
You spin me around like a good old stonecake
And she said:
Why
Why
Why

Nanananananana
You're my everything,
You make me feel alrightâ€¦
Nanananananana
You're my everything,
You make me feel alrightâ€¦
Nanananananana
You're my everything,
You make me feel alrightâ€¦
