I knew you from before, I don't know how, I don't know why
You weren't like the other girls, instead of lies, you gave me time
So please believe me when I say, thanks for the time of day
Why did you come this way, you are what I just can't date

I hope that I can meet you sometime in my hopeful lifetime
Or will I only see you in those few dreams I have in my nighttime
I'm running out of things to say, and words that go together to make a rhyme
I guess I'll give up on the and look ahead to focus on what I need to do

Well I don't talk to you so much, but I wish I have
But I think of you a lot, especially in the bath
So take your time with me, and use it wisely
Cause I don't want to be, another person to sleep. with
