So it's the wonder years, I'm short 3 beers to reach and hold the best time of my life And so I've been told the knowledge I know from the books of truth and the lies From Mr. Lerkins, Jerkins Perkins and all the cursing to just a person, things I won't forget There's no need for an apology from my ex-girlfriend

So I'll just forget the friends I thought I had, Cause they'll be gone when times are bad It's always over when it's said, the words may lack but always meant
The problems been unsolved, unseen, to leave the room to remember me
I want as much as I can get but somehow I can never reach the length

Houses getting raid to me getting laid, it's a part of growing up Apprehension for kin vending drugs, leaving stress and confidence undone
The things I see to where I want to be, but you keep saying I'm wrong
I'm trying to see a necessity but the road's ending up too long

So I'll just forget the friends I thought I had, Cause
they'll be gone when times are bad
always meant
The problems been unsolved, unseen, to leave the
room to remember me
I want as much as I can get but somehow I can never
reach the length
