So just go leave without a trace say that you're not scared again i see it on you're face don't you know that i'll be better hand in hand we'll walk into this ocean again and now i found the ghost in you a thousand tears won't wash away the pain and now i am a different boy faces fade from all the frames but i know i will see the ghost again so just roll all the tears away strong destroys the weak again and i will neal and pray and now i'm growing older you're the voice inside my head but i am alone

but i know i'll see the ghost again
