"Cut Short"

Cut short from what I wanted
Nothing more than a disappointment
I'm always settling for the worst
Always settling for nothing

I had in my mind
I put in my time
Gave up my life
Cuz life's too short to feel sorry all the time

I know that in time I'll be just fine
But for now I'll keep pushing on
And forget this piece of shit I've become

I hate who I
(I've become)
There's so much more to life x2

Life is the same, I've seen it
Life is the same, I feel it
Seen the regulars
And I don't
I don't wanna be it
