In the background, I sit and bathe in the night
And I make the most of a gunning rain in the sky

And I thought the rain would never break
And I thought the rain would never break
And I thought the rain would never break
And I thought the rain would never break

And we will be all, we'll be all
Woohoo.
And we will be all, we'll be all
Woohoo.

Under a cape sky, troubles weigh on the brow
So I send my thoughts to rearrange in the clouds

Even if the clouds can't promise things
And I know the clouds can't promise things
Even if the clouds can't promise things
And I know the clouds can't promise things

And we will be all, we'll be all
Woohoo.
And we will be all, we'll be all
Woohoo.
And we will be all, we'll be all
Woohoo.
And we will be all, we'll be all
Woohoo.
