I wake up to a rush of emotion
Is this a nightmare or a dream?
Again I find I'm stuck in this limbo
Of another failed routine

I wake up crying because I'm thinking back to you
I close my eyes again and memories ensue

[Chorus]
Falling Faster, Never slowing
Fear and panic, our doubt growing
Hurting you, the whole time knowing
Felt your pain, but never showing

Its impossible to stop thinking about
Why we failed, why we couldn't turn around
You say your alright, that your ok now
But what about me? I'm still breaking down

chorus
