This is so out of the ordinary

Talk is cheap, It's actions I'd rather see
After all, it's what we are
Dropping hints, the way that your eyes seem to glint
All this attention, whats your intention?

So we'll leave it all behind
We finally read between our lines

[Chorus]

This is so out of the ordinary
I just need you to dare me, dare me in
Our eyes meet and we smile ear to ear
We never felt better in our skin
We never felt better in our..

You found me out, i want you without a doubt
And as we hit the wall, our inhibitions fall
You got me here, you whisper into my ear
"You can't begin to imagine what your into"

So we'll leave it all behind
We finally read between our lines

[chorus]

This out of... (8x)

[chorus]

This is so out of the ordinary
I just need you to dare me, dare me in
Our eyes meet and we smile ear to ear
We never felt better in our skin
We never felt better in our skin
