On a dark and stormy night, A gypsy woman came knocking on my door
A cold wind followed her inside, I got the feeling that she'd been there before Eyes that glowed like emeralds, And her long dark raven hair
I turned my back and in a flash she was gone
Or was she ever Really there
Chorus
In my mind I see a vision, Like a burning ember glowing white
Am I haunted or is my imagination, Chasing shadows through the night

As I awakened from my slumber, The smell of morning dew rises through the air Grey Apperitations fade into sunshine, Have I lost my mind,
Or was she Really there
Chorus
Repeat Chorus
