Breathe, Out
Pulling me near Whispering Softly
Inside of my ear
Theres no way
That were stopping here
When the stars are all over there...

So laugh, Dance
the whole night away Feel your bangs brushing
the side of my face Your eyes, Stare
straight into mine Piercing my soul
reading my mind
and I know...

That your one of a kind
And you should be mine
Don't go...

Chorus:
If you could teach me how to fly
So I could take my place
Here by your side Forever and always Im taking flight
Cause I know
That your all I want and more Please Don't close the door Give me your hand and give me one chance To show you were worth fighting for...

Smile, Wide Taking me in Swallow me whole
in your perfectness
color my world
line after line

day after day time after time
so soft, faint
holding my breath
standing on the edge I wonder whats next study your lips
slowly pulling you in two worlds collide
our story begins
and I know...

That your one of a kind
and you should be mine
don't go...
