Well the way things are going
It won't be very long
Til them flashing neon signs
Are all but gone
They say the night life ain't the right life
Pour the whiskey down the drain
Melt down all those 45's
That talk about trucks and trains

[Chorus]

I'll be there when they burn
The last Honky Tonk down
In body mind and spirit
Under the table or under the ground
The fading echoes of a bar room band
Might be the only sound
I'll be there when they burn
The last Honky Tonk down

Pull the jukebox from the ashes
Dust it off and turn it on
We'll dance in the burning embers
Until dawn
Pull a double from the rubble
And we'll drink to the good ole days
Sit there til the smoke clears
And my last selection plays

[Chorus]

I'll be there when they burn
The last Honky Tonk down
In body mind and spirit
Under the table or under the ground
The fading echoes of a bar room band
Might be the only sound
I'll be there when they burn
The last Honky Tonk down

[repeat]

I'll be there when they burn
the last Honky Tonk down
