Hey baby can you feel it,
I can still hardly believe it,
But i just found out, that it was all true,
About the Father and the Spirit.
And the One who came down,
You know i've waited so long,
but He's still the best ride in town,
But we fell in deep and i lost my way,
On that night, that didnt belong to us anyway.
And sometimes i wish you'd forget, about some of those things i used to say,
Oh 'cause baby i know, its gonna be okay.
And everythings exploding
all around us tonight, Yeah just like those fireworks,
out on the beach that night,
But i felt like i would die,
If i didnt get out of there soon.
Just to go off and light that candle,
For you in June.

And i am moving. Yes i am,
I am moving...

And on Sundays at the barn,
I always tried to play so hard,
Yeah with Dr John, and the boys from the Boulevard,
And nobody cried when we played the blues,
Just one woman said she'd had enough,
Of everything but nobody seemed to care that much,
Oh but "G" would lay it down mean, sometimes i swear an angel played drums,
And we never knew when to stop,
cause we just took it right off the top,
And when "Little" Mr Collins sang about that old rolling stone,
Was about the same time Coolhand Luke,
ran off looking for his home,
Well i heard he chased down,
Some of those green light ladies,
You know he always said that he wanted to get some.

And when everybody got stoned,
it was me who saw the stars, when me and Greg, oh we'd just pray to God
please,

And i, i am moving, oh yes i am,
I am moving...

Now the big man said we were through,
Playing those blues.
You know he always came on strong,
when he was laying down his rules,
Well i guess he just got tired,
of pulling that big yellow car,
Jam pack with that silver dog,
Playing in all those smoked out bars
Yeah but both my brothers packed their bags,
They both saw the light,
I got on the phone with one of them
Just the other night
Well he finally broke up, with his sweet river girl
And now he says man, he's got his hands full,
And me i just got stranded, there was nothing i could do,
Then you babe you, you got on that plane too,
Well i guess i'll just say goodbye,
I've got to live my dreams too,
Oh but i swear i'll never say goodbye to you Karin. I am moving.

It's a long way back from here,
We must keep moving on my dear,
And there's no turning back from here,
But there's no need to worry,
there's nothing here to fear,
And so Farewell, Station Rd,
And when all is said and done,
No time is wasted in the shining of the Sun.
