"Like a child"

Can you feel, the warm breezes blowing?
Through you hair
Can you see, spring birds returning?
From who knows where,
Over mountains and fields of morning sun,
Through the green hills and valleys,
In my mind.

Here in my heart, I'm like a child,
Still in my soul, I'm like a child,

Can you see? the clouds they are moving
They sail the skies
Can you hear? a river is flowing
Forever by.
There are so many wonders that i can see,
Just like one who gives his life for you and me

Here in my heart, I'm like a child,
Still in my soul, I'm like a child.
