Sleep, sleep, I'm wide awake,
But you wont let me go
In dreams i crack, break, my body aches,
But you wont let me know,
Inside me scream, scream, where have you been?
I'm coming round again,
Slow rush, rush, its never enough,
Wont you take away my sin.

And tell me who, can relate to you?
Who? can relate to you

When you take, take, dont forsake,
The promises you make,
But carry on, gone, we're all wrong,
And you're just another fake,
But i'm a snake, shake, shiver and shake,
But where do you belong?
But carry on and on and on and on,
Look here comes the sun.

And tell me who, can relate to you?
Who? can relate to you

Give, give and to live,
Forget and forgive, my brother,
Please, please, please dont leave,
At least not like this,
Its not too late, wait, contemplate,
This is not your fate
And i believe there surely is,
One who can relate.
