Carry me
Back to safety
I can't fall asleep
But still I'm stuck in this god damn dream lie to me describe to me how all of this is not what it seems to be

Here's to the sorrow, the hurt and the pain we all face
The lonely nights afraid
Here's to the chances we all throw away every day
So raise your glass with me to one more day

Take it all away and I swear I wouldn't change a thing there is meaning in the end Here's to all the nights we spent Just tearin' up the town
Now this city screams your name

Oh my God
I'm on my own
I felt it tonight
You're gone for good
I have to face it
I can't erase it, oh no
I know now that I can't change a thing
