"Oh!"

oh!
we always said we would

take your time
take a seat
take a sit down

deep breaths
look around
at the surrounds

blinding me
blinding you
would sit us down

slipping in
slipping in
slipping in the crowd

name tag
tucks you
to the lost and found

folding back
both your ears
till you cut the sound

from the back
from the front
from the other ground

oh!

lets speak
while the freaks
are whispering

all the while in style
no one listening

bare bones
are the clones
in control

they know
and we know how this will unfold

confused
amused
as they hit the floor

want more
tap tap
on the double door

stepping up
stepping out
now you feel good

just like you were told
like you always should

oh!
