i'll see you in the morning at the break of daylight but if you wake up and i'm gone i'll see you on the other side late nights talking we stood by the window by ourselves remembering the starry nights and wishing they could be ours

and now we wonder what happened to those times cause i'd give anything to have you here tonight when you're kids like us you do whatever whatever it takes to get to where we are now nothing holds you back when youre kids like us chasing our dreams and living life for every second nothing holds you back when youre kids like us so chase your dreams and live your life for every second
