No, it's for you but then you didn't need me to say that
'Cos you already knew, how many times is it today that He's had to call? It's as if you're still together
I don't care at all, I'm just wondering whether
You think you and he will ever run out
Of things that you have to talk about
You said everything you will ever need so
Why can't you just let him go
OK I lied, sometimes it's like you never met me
Oh I've really tried, but all these in-jokes just upset me
Do you think you and he will ever run out
Of things that you have to talk about
You said everything you will ever need so
Why can't you just let him go
Just tell him 'goodbye' and put down the phone
And for once we can be on our own
You think I'm making this up but darling it's true
It just feels as if I'm sharing you
