Everybody's got a story, calling out
But no one's got the time.
Didn't I tell you I was drifting?
Didn't I tell you I was slipping?
But no one's got the time
Cause they're all looking for their
Answers, looking for their signs
Looking for a little piece of mind

Give me something to believe in!
Tell it to me with conviction!
Make me feel like everything's alright!
I can't stop this awful feeling - something
In me won't stop reeling
Make me feel like everything's alright.

Inside I'm still somewhat learning
as the world keeps spinning round and round and round
'Cause we're all looking for the answers
looking for the signs
I'm looking for a little piece of mind

Give me something to believe in!
Tell it to me with conviction!
Make me feel like everything's alright!
I can't stop this awful feeling - something
In me won't stop reeling
Make me feel like everything's alright.

Am I falling behind? Keep on falling behind?
Throw me a line!

Give me something to believe in!
Tell it to me with conviction!
Make me feel like everything's alright!
I can't stop this awful feeling - something
In me won't stop reeling
Make me feel like everything's alright.
