False claims.
But I maintain.
True to da game, hardcore family.
Brothers in blood, no matter da skin.
Wake up, end your fantasy.
I'll remain, true til da end.
I'll remain, true to my friends.
True to my friends.
Always on the looking out.
Got your back, no matter what.

Respect, cause it's da only way it'll grow.
Represent the true.
Keep it real, from my heart
We all have our choices.
We all make mistakes.
We all have it in us ta forgive.
Until the cycles broken.
We must tolerate, remain true.
